

ARTICLE XXVII

OFF-SEASON WORKOUTS

Section 1. All off-season workout bonuses that may be earned by a player shall be set forth in the player's AFL Player Contract, with the consideration to be paid and the terms of such workouts specified therein. All such workout bonuses that are earned shall count against the Salary Cap in the League Year in which they are earned.

Section 2. No player may be required to participate in any off-season workouts, except as otherwise specifically permitted by this Agreement with respect to mini-camps (as described in Article XXVIII) and pre-season training camps (as described in Article XXIX).